Weather Journal

Name ________________________________

A meteorologist is a person who studies and reports the weather. Use the weather journal below to record the weather conditions around you.

Date ________________________________

Today, the weather is...

____________________________________

The temperature of the air is...

____________________________________

The wind is blowing from the...

____________________________________

I can see _____________________________ clouds in the sky.

This type of weather makes me feel...

____________________________________

I predict tomorrow’s weather will be...

____________________________________

because...